

The FCC should not interfere with Indiana's no call list to benefit a few banks. We appreciate not being bombarded with solitations by phone and want to keep our telephone number off limits.